EMPOWERING PARENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS TO COUNTER ANTISEMITISM AND ANTI-ISRAEL ANIMUS IN SCHOOLS AND ON CAMPUS.

Join American Jewish Committee (AJC) Long Island in partnership with the Sid Jacobson JCC for the first AJC Long Island Parents' Summit. The summit will empower parents of high school and college students (parents and grandparents of students in all grades are welcome) to counter antisemitism and anti-Israel animus in the classroom and on campus.

AJC is the global advocacy organization for the Jewish people, combating antisemitism, standing up for Israel and defending democratic values. AJC and the Sid Jacobson JCC are entering their third year of partnership on the Leaders for Tomorrow (LFT) program, empowering Jewish high school students to defend Israel and combat antisemitism.

For more information, please email longisland@ajc.org or call 212-891-1442.
